

TUI Airline awarded as Europe's Leading Charter Airline

- Fourth award in a row: TUI receives World Travel Award
- "Great recognition and incentive for everyone at TUI Airline"
- Winners honored at award ceremony in Berlin

Berlin/Hanover, March 7, 2024. TUI Airline remains the high-flyer in the industry and has now received the coveted trophy as "Europe's Leading Charter Airline" for the fourth time in a row. Europe's leading travel brands were honored at the World Travel Award Gala (WTA) ceremony in Berlin on Wednesday evening. Since 2021, there has been no way around the five airlines from the UK, Scandinavia, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Germany in this category.

"It is wonderful to see that the work of our more than 8,000 colleagues is appreciated so much by our guests. This award is a great recognition for everyone at TUI Airline. The award will be a great incentive to improve our service even further to take first place again next year and offer our guests the best travel experience not only on vacation, but also on the way there and back again," said Marco Ciomperlik, Chief Airline Officer of TUI Group.

"Congratulations to TUI Airline for winning 'Europe's Leading Charter Airline 2024'. This is a superb achievement, reflecting how the airline is setting the benchmark in the charter aviation sector. The commitment of the entire TUI Airline team serves as an inspiration to us all", said Graham E. Cooke, Founder, World Travel Awards. Flight attendants Barbara Fromme and Julia Täger accepted the award on behalf of TUI Airline.

The WTA were founded in 1993 to recognize outstanding achievements in the tourism industry. Today, the WTA brand is recognized worldwide as a seal of quality. The winners set the standard by which all others are judged.
