

Anti-Corruption and Supplier Code of Conduct

[Supplier] shall comply with all applicable laws on the prevention of bribery and corruption when performing its duties under this Agreement. This includes the prohibition of illegal payments or the inducement of other inappropriate advantages towards public officials, business partners, their employees, family members or other close relationship.

[Supplier] agrees to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the requirements of the UK Bribery Act 2010 and in particular not to make any facilitation payments to any public official.

[The Parties] agree to support each other in the prevention of bribery and corruption and will inform each other immediately as soon as they know or suspect a case of bribery in relation to this Agreement or the fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement.

The Party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect if and when the Party learns that [Supplier] is in breach of any anti-corruption and bribery regulation.

[Supplier] shall note the application of the TUI Supplier Code of Conduct on http://www.tui-group.com/en/company/compliance/suppliers_code_of_conduct. [Supplier] shall ensure compliance with the rules and regulations of this Supplier Code of Conduct.
