Hanover, 5 June 2023. Kathrin Möllers will become Group Director Sustainability & ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) of TUI Group. She will take over the leadership of the international team from Charlotte Wwiebe on 1 July 2023.

In recent years, Kathrin Möllers has worked intensively on the topics of change, digitalisation and sustainability at TUI and successfully managed and implemented strategic transformation processes during her time in the Group's airline division. With her vast operational experience and extensive technical expertise, she will drive the practical implementation of the TUI Sustainability Agenda, which was presented at the beginning of 2023, and develop it further in all of the Group's business areas. Kathrin Möllers began her career at TUI in 2014 as a consultant in project and process management, later taking on various management positions in TUI's international airline organisation. She is currently Head of Aircraft Asset & Business Management. In her new role, Kathrin Möllers reports to Thomas Ellerbeck, Member of the Group Executive Committee and Chief Sustainability Officer of TUI Group.

The TUI Sustainability Agenda was published at the beginning of this year (link). Now that the strategy process has been successfully completed, the focus is on implementing the Sustainability Agenda in the various business areas. TUI aims to build on its leading position in sustainability in the tourism sector.

After successful years in management positions at TUI Group, Charlotte Wwiebe will contribute her knowledge and experience in various organisations as a consultant and Supervisory Board member in the future, as announced in February 2023.
